

D Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary

Read the paragraph about office supplies, equipment, and furniture and check your understanding of the meaning of the words in bold.

Well-equipped offices need a wide variety of equipment and stationery. Every office needs stationery supplies such as pens, labels, paper clips, stapler and staples, tape, and scissors. Many businesses have a large supply room that contains shelves full of office supplies. Most offices have a filing cabinet for important documents and some offices even have a safe where they keep money or valuable papers. But that's not enough for the modern office. Each office worker also needs a PC or laptop on their desk. They also need access to a printer, a scanner, a fax machine, and a copy machine.

Vocabulary note

The words stationary and stationery look and sound similar.

Stationery is a noun.

I stopped at the office supply store to buy some stationery. (writing materials: paper, envelopes, pens, pencils, notepads, etc.)

Stationary is an adjective.

The train was stationary. (not moving)

Vocabulary note

The word safe has more than one meaning.

Safe can be a noun.

The jewelry was placed inside the safe. (= a box made of steel used to store valuable items)

Have a safe travel. (= free from danger or harm)

1 It is Andrew's first day at a new job. Read this conversation between Andrew and his new colleague, Jasmine. Choose the correct words to complete the conversation.

Jasmine: So, here is the 1 supply / equipment room. It has everything you need, I think. Each 2 laptop / shelf has a label that tells you what's on it. This one's for papers and pads.

Andrew: Oh, you keep a lot of supplies here. Can I take I need now? I think I'm going to need some 3 scanners / stationery. Markers and pens would be useful, for a start.
