Reading Comprehension - Seven Women Who Changed The World

Develop your reading skills. Read the following text.

Who are some of the women who changed the world?

Who can regret the importance of women in our every day life? Women help not only with the housework but also in the progress of countries. They have reached a high place comparable to that of men in all fields: politics, business, sport, art, literature etc.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.
