

Luna's Harvest

Luna and her Mom planted a garden. Luna waited for the plants to grow. The she watched for the vegetables to get ripe.

“Can I pick the tomatoes later, Mommy?” Luna asked.

“No, it will be tomorrow,” said Mom. But as the sun came up, a squirrel chomped on every tomato.

“When can we pick the green beans?” Luna asked.

“Tomorrow.” said Mom.

But as the sun came up, a rabbit nibbled away green bean.

“How about the cucumbers?” Luna asked.

“Tomorrow, as well” said Mom. But as the sun came up, Luna's dog, Babu munched on the cucumbers.

One day when the sun climbed high in the sky, Luna put on her garden gloves. She picked ten egg plants.

Squirrel watched from a tree. Rabbit watched from behind a bush. Babu watched from a lawn chair.

In the kitchen, Luna and Mom made a delicious sinigang for dinner. Everyone was happy with the harvest.
