

Armed Jewelry Thieves Target Kardashian West in Paris

Vocabulary:

shaken (adjective)

– shocked, upset or frightened by something

Example: The car crash left her visibly shaken.

assailant (noun)

– a person who attacks somebody, especially physically

Example: His assailant is now serving jail time.

abruptly (adverb)

– in a sudden, unexpected and often unpleasant way

Example: The electricity went out abruptly.

spark (in this case – verb)

– to cause something to start or develop, especially suddenly

Example: The corruption scandal sparked protests all over the country.

whereabouts (noun)

– the place where somebody/something is

Example: Do you happen to know the whereabouts of my dog?

こちらはサンプルです。テキスト全文は受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.