

A Life Story

Picture Story: Life Story

Tell the life story of Michael and Carlota. Talk about the expectations their parents had, their own expectations, and what happened.

Discussion. Compare the plans and beliefs you had about your own future when you were young.

Grammar Review: Using have to, supposed to, and ought to

Have to is the same as must. It implies that you don't have a choice.

- John has to go to work everyday.
- The students have to study tonight.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.
