

Skill Builders: Writing – Narrative Writing 1

Biographical Narrative Writing

Narrative writing is writing that tells a story, whether true or fictional.

Writing a Biographical Narrative

A biographical narrative is a nonfiction account of life. In this type of writing, another person is described through the eyes of the writer. It is one of many types of narrative writing that relies on concrete details, images, spoken words, sensory description, and actions. Through these narrative elements, writer's illuminate or chronicle perceptions of a memorable person.
