

Lesson 5: Talking about Work

What do you do?

JOB DESCRIPTION	JOB
<input type="checkbox"/> I work in a bank	a. delivery driver
<input type="checkbox"/> I deliver things.	b. a travel agent
<input type="checkbox"/> I type and help my boss.	c. a banker
<input type="checkbox"/> I make reservations for people.	d. a chef
<input type="checkbox"/> I answer the phone and greet people.	e. an accountant
<input type="checkbox"/> I do general office work.	f. a mechanic
<input type="checkbox"/> I do people's taxes.	g. an office worker
<input type="checkbox"/> I cook food in a restaurant.	h. a receptionist
<input type="checkbox"/> I fix cars.	i. a secretary

Activity 1: Job Interview in an Employment Service Agency.

A: What's your name?

B: I'm Carl Brown.

A: Nice to meet you. Tell me, Carl, what kind of job are you looking for?

B: I'm looking for a job as a travel agent.

A: Tell me about your skills. What can you do?

B: I can file, I can type and I can use business software on the computer.

Practice:

Create a dialog using the the dialog above as a model.

A: What's your name?

B: I'm _____.

A: Nice to meet you. Tell me, _____, what kind of job are you looking for?

B: I'm looking for a job as _____.

A: Tell me about your skills. What can you do?

B: I can _____.

Speaking Practice:

What's your dream job?
(I'd like to be a)

Pronunciation: Syllable and Word Stress

Syllable	Word Stress
I'm a SEC retary.	I'm an OFFICE worker.
I'm an ac COUNT ant	I'm a TRAVEL agent.
I'm a me CHAN ic.	I'm a DELIVERY driver.

