Writing about Personal Experience

Writing a Personal Experience Essay

Pre-writing

Choose one experience from your life that is interesting enough to be told.

Introduction

Think of an introduction that will make the reader eager to know more about the experience.

Body

Use simple past or past continuous tense. If something happened previous to the personal experience, use past perfect.

Write down some quick notes about the experience.

Don't worry about grammar. Take five minutes at the end to proofread your essay.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.
