Reading

A 10-year-old child has given birth to a baby girl. The young mum, Elena, is from Romania. Her daughter, Nicoletta, weighed 2.9 kg. Nicoletta's father is just 13, although he and Elena are no longer together. The baby's grandmother, Olimpia, said Elena's situation was not uncommon in Romania. "These things are normal in our country. Girls get married at ten, so we don't understand why people are so surprised," she said. She also said the whole family was feeling 'ecstatic' with the happy news.
