

My Hometown

I am from Vancouver, a large city in the southwest corner of Canada near the Pacific Ocean. Vancouver is a beautiful city that is surrounded by water and mountains. Vancouver has a mild climate, even in winter. Now I live in Florida, and it is often very hot and humid. Vancouver is an important center for business. It is the busiest port city in Canada, and it is a center of mining, software, and biotechnology. We also have a huge tourist industry. Vancouver is safe and clean, and it has natural beauty as well as many historic, cultural, and recreational opportunities. I love my city and I think you will, too. Please come visit Vancouver!
