

Saying “Please,” “May I?” and Yes, You May”

Smart Note:

We say “Please” or “May I” when we ask for a favor. We say “Thank you” to the person who did us a favor in return.

Read the dialogs.

1. Eric is carrying some books. He will enter the room.

Eric: Please open the door!

Ted: Okay!

Eric: Thank you!

Ted: You are welcome!

2. Pam left her pencil at home.

Pam: May I borrow a pencil?

Ted: Yes, you may!

Pam: Thank you!

Listen as your teacher reads the following scenarios. Say the polite expression for each situation.
