

Writing Storms

The idea of this exercise is to get students to quickly write about a topic they choose (or you assign). These short presentations are then used in two manners; to generate spontaneous conversations on a wide range of topics, and to take a look at some common writing problems.

Aim: Working on common writing mistakes - generating conversation

Activity: Short writing exercises followed by discussion

Level: Beginner to Upper - Intermediate

Outline:

- Variation 1: Tell students that they will have exactly five minutes (reduce or extend the writing time as you feel is appropriate) to write about a subject on the list that you are going to give them.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.
