

Guess Which Beach is “Best in the US”

Vocabulary:

snorkeling(noun)

– the sport or activity of swimming underwater with a snorkel (a tube that you can breathe air through when you are swimming under the surface of the water)

Example: I saw lots of beautiful fish when I went snorkeling last weekend.

span (verb) – to include a large area or a lot of things

Example: Their business spans in areas of the economy such as finance and tourism.

rank (in this case – verb)

– to give somebody/something a particular position on a scale according to quality, importance, success, to have a position of this kind

Example: We ranked the songs from the least popular to the most popular.

criterion (noun) – a standard or principle by which something is judged, or with the help of which a decision is made

Example: I want to know the criteria you have used to determine her work efficiency.

emphasis (noun) – special importance that is given to something

Example: The teacher puts more emphasis on practice than on memorization.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.

テキスト全文はレッスン受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。