Duration: 1:08 minutes

Getting together with friends on group date can be a fun activity, especially when you like hanging out with people, but you aren't interested in a serious relationship. In such situations, what kinds of activities do you like to do with your friends (e.g., going to watch a movie, playing video games, hiking, etc.).

Vocabulary:

catch a movie (verb): watch

Example: Let's catch a movie this afternoon after school is over.

cram (verb): study hard

Example: I had to cram all night for the final text in my biology class.

blast (noun): fun time

Example: Thanks for inviting me to the party yesterday. It was a real blast.

throw a party (verb): have

Example: My parents are throwing a big party for my brother who just got married.

midnight (adverb): 12 o'clock at night, the middle of the night

Example: I have to be back home by midnight. It's a family rule.

Idioms:

"know someone through and through" = know very well

"Hey, I know him through and through, and I can only say he is full of integrity."

"true-blue friend" = someone who is completely loyal to another

"A true-blue friend never turns against his or her friends."
