

Marriage Insurance

Warm Up: Do you agree or disagree? Why?

1. Marriage is the most important part of adulthood.
2. Marriage is the most difficult part of adulthood.
3. I never want to get married!

Vocabulary:

fraudulent --Something fraudulent is intentionally false and meant to harm or deceive.

Crackpot -A crackpot is a colorfully strange or odd person.

complexity -the quality of being intricate and complicated assets -Your assets are things you have that are valuable.

Languish -To languish is to become pitiful or weak because you're sick, in love, or stuck somewhere.

Example: A prisoner might languish in jail, longing for her freedom.

Remuneration -the act of paying for goods or services or to compensate for losses

Termination - the act of ending something

Veracity - Veracity sounds like some kind of disease you don't want to catch, but in fact, it means truthfulness.

Marriage Insurance

All sorts of online businesses come and go these days, from the legitimate to the fraudulent to the crackpot. Olu O. Eniwaye, a professor at Daytona State College in Ohio, thought up a new idea: sell marriage insurance online. After all, in the US alone, 50% of marriages are dissolved by divorce. There's added complexity in the relationship because couples continue to marry later in their lives. Both men and women bring more assets to the union, as well as debt.
