

Phrasal Verbs

A phrasal verb is a combination of words (a verb + a preposition or verb +adverb) that when used together, usually take on a different meaning to that of the original verb.

Vocabulary:

look down on = To consider as inferior

Example: She's such a snob. She always looks down on anyone who is poor.

look up to = To admire

Example: I always looked up to my father. He was a great man.

get on with (something) = To continue to do; make progress

Example: After they split up, she had a hard time getting on with her life.

get over =To recover from (illness, disappointment)

Example: Has she gotten over the flu?

hand in = To submit (report, homework)

Example: Please hand in your papers before Friday.

hand out = To distribute

Example: Susan volunteered at the shelter where she handed out warm clothes.

hand in = To submit (report, homework)

Example: Please hand in your papers before Friday.

hand out = To distribute

Example: Susan volunteered at the shelter where she handed out warm clothes.

run into= To meet by accident or unexpectedly (also: bump into)

Example: I'm so glad I ran into you. I need to ask you something.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.

テキスト全文はレッスン受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。